

The German Voice in Indiana: A Festival of Bicentennial Celebration

October 10 - 16, 2016

Monday, October 10 - 7 pm

Speaking Through Time, Knox County Public Library - German voices in Vincennes past & present. Readings of poems by Hoosier and visiting German poets who have collaborated on poetic work. Performance of songs from ALICE OF OLD VINCENNES: A MUSICAL and German inspired refreshments.

Tuesday, October 11 - 4pm

Speaking Through Time, Dubois County Museum - German voices in Jasper past & present, with Hoosier poets of German heritage Norbert Krapf and Joyce Brinkman and visiting German poets Gabriele Glang and Helmut Haberkamm

Wednesday, October 12 - 6pm - 8pm

Speaking Through Time, Indianapolis Public Library (Indianapolis Room) - German Literary Heritage, Reading of What Libraries Hold, collaborative poem written by two German and two Indianapolis poets and inspired by 8 books by Hoosier of German heritage in the Indianapolis Room Collection. Bicentennial Literary Map Handout.

Thursday, October 13 - Noon

Echoing Speech, - Indiana History Center - Exploring Hoosier- German Roots Through Words. Reading of poems inspired by historical documents written for the event by Hoosier poets of German heritage Norbert Krapf and Joyce Brinkman and visiting German poets Gabriele Glang and Helmut Haberkamm. Funded in part by Indiana Humanities with support from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Friday, October 14 - Noon

Speaking in Images, Jefferson County Library /Madison , Poetry & Paint Program by Gabriele Glang, German Poet/Artist & poetry collaborator with Joyce Brinkman

Saturday October 15 - 1-4 pm

Speaking in Images Indiana Writers Center - Visiting German poet and landscape painter Gabriele Glang will conduct The Art of Writing Ekphrastic Haiku Workshop.

Sunday, October 16, Evening

Speaking in Celebration, Athenaeum Tour with exhibit of paintings by German painter, followed by food, literary & musical presentations from German-connected poets and musicians,.